

Paris pit stop

Oh, you are so going to love ... scratch that ... worship us after reading this. We've made a tantalizing new foodie discovery in the form of a bakery. But it's not just your run-of-the-mill bakery. Patisserie de Paris is fabulously French (if you hadn't gathered from the name). Think sourdough breads, delicious handmade French pastries and its famous chocolate brownies (which trust us, will blow any other brownie you've ever had way out of the water).

It may not be the Avenue des Ternes but it'll certainly feel like it when you step into this pretty patisserie decorated in pinks and blues with loads of freshly baked sourdough breads (which tend to fly off the shelves). Not to mention stacks of the finest cookery books to pick and choose from. Outside there's plenty of pavement where you can relax while enjoying a cappuccino and your pastry of choice. Open Tues - Sun. Find it at 9 Mackay Avenue, Blairgowrie. Details: 011-326-0913.
