Each season, we look forward to the new collections from our local designers at SA Fashion Week (SAFW). This year we welcomed Yvan Rodic – better known as the FaceHunter – as a special guest to the fashion fair. This cult-followed, street-style photographer boasts two books of his global travels, documenting the people he meets with pictures taken on his camera and trusty iPhone. His visit was a whirlwind of image-capturing magic, discovering the raw beauty of Jo'burg through his camera lens. Instantly taken with its urban architecture, grittiness and the unique style of its people, the FaceHunter allowed us to see our special city in a new light. His visit began with a book signing at Warm & Glad, chatting to followers and MC readers over glasses of Veuve Clicquot and delicious treats from Patisserie de Paris. Despite a busy SAFW schedule, we took Yvan to hotspot 44 Stanley and through the streets of Soweto, where he was captivated by the diversity and mix of people. Thank you to SAFW for putting Jo'burg on to Yvan's fashion map. mc
